Happy Holidays!

Dear College Guild Readers,

As the joyful melodies of carols fill the air and the enchanting scent of pine needles wafts through our homes, your College Guild family extends our warmest greetings to you this Christmas season. Your dedication to the College Guild and the invaluable gift of your time have not gone unnoticed. In the spirit of this festive occasion, I want to express my heartfelt gratitude for the positive impact you have made on countless lives through your commitment to equality and education.

The holiday season is a time of reflection, and as we gather with loved ones, let us also reflect on the profound influence of education and the doors it opens for individuals. Your role as a volunteer reader is pivotal in fostering a love for learning, mutual respect, and creating opportunities for personal growth. In the true spirit of giving, you have given the gift of knowledge and empowerment, making a lasting difference in the lives of those you have touched. Your selflessness and generosity exemplify the true magic of Christmas.

May this holiday season bring you moments of joy, laughter, and the company of cherished ones. As you continue to share the gift of literacy, may you find fulfillment in knowing that your efforts contribute to a brighter and more hopeful future for those you serve. Thank you for being a beacon of light in the lives of others, and may the spirit of Christmas fill your heart with warmth and gratitude.

Wishing you Happy Holidays and a New Year filled with hope and joy!

Mary
